How do I register for the Jamboree?

Camper and staff registration are now open! Click this link for detailed information!

Before you attempt to register, you must first create a user account via the National Jamboree website. (This is unique for the Jamboree, and it is not related to your MyScouting account.) Once you have created this account, you may register for any of the available options (i.e. Leader, Scout, or Staff). Be prepared with your BSA Membership ID and have a recent digital photo to upload before you begin.

If under 18, the parent or guardian will also have to create their own National Jamboree account and link your child's BSA membership to the parent's account. From the parent's account you can review your child's application, approve and submit it to National. You MUST complete this step for your son's application to be submitted. Once each applicant has successfully submitted their application, their dashboard will show a status of "Pending Review."

After completing the online registration, please print a copy of the application, have your Scoutmaster or Venture Crew Advisor to sign.

Please submit the signed application and $150 non-refundable deposit to:

Chicago Area Council

Jamboree Scout

1218 West Adams Street

Chicago, Illinois 60607

While many costs are unknown, the Jamboree fee is expected to be approximately $1,500 - $1,700 in 2013. Interested Scouts and families should begin saving now for a memorable trip. Check here often for details when they are known.

How to I register to be a leader for our council's contingent?

Adults are needed to serve in leadership roles for our Scouts. Interest Scouters should apply online (no deposit necessary) and submit a Scouting resume to:

Chicago Area Council

Jamboree Contingent Leader

1218 West Adams Street

Chicago, Illinois 60607

All interested adults will be interviewed by the Jamboree Selection Committee before final selections are made. Once you have been selected and accepted a leadership position, you will need to submit a $150 non-refundable deposit. Adults not selected will be able to apply for Jamboree staff-at-large positions.

Leaders are expected to be selected in late 2011 early 2012. Leader applicants will be placed on a "waiting list" within the Jamboree registration system until final selections are made.
